Mr. Riera Joins SymBio as Director of Business Development

TOKYO, Japan, May 11, 2011 -- SymBio Pharmaceuticals Limited (Headquarters: Tokyo, “SymBio,”) is pleased to announce that Mr. Abel Riera Corominas has joined the company as Director of Business Development, bringing over 15 years of commercial expertise in Biotech and Pharma to the Business Development team.

Mr. Riera holds an MBA from Pittsburg State University, an Economics degree from the University of Barcelona, and a BS in Business Administration from McPherson College. He has gained extensive experience in corporate planning, sales & marketing, and business development working at Amgen, Almirall and Oncovision.

Over half of his career has been spent at Amgen: Amgen International HQ in Lucerne (currently Zug) where he was responsible for key account management, strategic planning and analysis for the nephrology franchise, and Amgen Spain where he was responsible for sales & marketing effectiveness efforts to support the company's business units during a period of tremendous growth.

SymBio looks forward to Mr. Riera’s contribution to the company’s overall business development and marketing strategy as it accelerates geographical expansion in Asia Pacific.

[Company Profile]

SymBio Pharmaceuticals Ltd. was established in March, 2005 by Fuminori Yoshida, who previously served concurrently as Corporate VP of Amgen Ltd. and President of Amgen Japan (currently Takeda Bio Development Center Limited). The company’s underlying corporate mission is “delivering hope to patients in need” as it aspires to be a leading specialty pharmaceutical company in Asia Pacific dedicated to addressing underserved medical needs in the areas of oncology, hematology and autoimmune disease.
